ACCOUNT DISCLOSURES

- The Dividend Rates and Annual Percentage Yields set forth above are accurate as of the last declaration date.
- The Dividend Rates and Annual Percentage Yields on accounts may change.
- The Dividend Period is the period of time at the end of which an account earns dividend credit. The dividend period begins on the first calendar day of the period and ends on the last calendar day of the period.
- Interest begins to accrue no later than the business day we receive credit for the non-cash (e.g. checks) deposit to your account.
- If you close your account before interest is credited, interest is paid to the date of withdrawal.
- Interest is compounded monthly and credited on the cycle date (monthly).
- Daily Balance calculation method applies a periodic daily rate to the principal in the account each day, provided the minimum balance to earn the annual percentage yield and interest rate is maintained.
- Average Daily Balance calculation is determined by adding the principal in the account for each day of the period and dividing that figure by the number of days in the period.
- If applicable, service charges could reduce your earnings.
- See separate fee schedule for a listing of fees and charges applicable to your account.
