

Erie FCU names Tracey Cettin Chief Human Resources Officer

Erie, PA (February 26, 2024) — Erie Federal Credit Union (Erie FCU) is pleased to announce that Tracey Cettin has been promoted to Chief Human Resources Officer, a newly added position to the credit union's executive team. As CHRO, Cettin will lead the efforts of diversity, equity and inclusion, employee engagement, talent acquisition, employee relations, company culture, compensation and benefits. She will also work closely with the Executive Team and department heads to align human resources objectives with the credit union's overall strategic goals.

Cettin is a long-term credit union professional who has been with Erie FCU since 2009, when she was hired as the credit union's first Human Resources and Training Manager. "For the past 14 years, Tracey has been hands-on in the leadership and support of our Human Resources and Development areas, implementing programs that have grown our organization", said Brian Waugaman, Erie FCU CEO. "Tracey's experience and commitment to Erie FCU have prepared her well for this critical executive role."

Erie FCU's Human Resources team is responsible for hiring, developing and retaining top employees to best serve its members. "We believe investing in our people makes us even better at serving our members and the community", said Cettin. In 2023, Erie Federal Credit Union was voted Erie's "Best Place to Work, 100+ Employees" in the 2023 Erie's Choice Awards.

A native of Erie, PA Cettin earned a bachelor's degree in Business Management from the Pennsylvania State University and certifications from the Society of Human Resources Management and the HR Certification Institute. A mother to two children, she currently resides in Erie, PA with her husband, Matt.
