Erie Federal Credit Union supports ServErie with donation

Highlighting a dedication to its members and to the community, Erie Federal Credit Union announced a donation of $3,000 to ServErie. ServErie is a group of area churches and businesses who desire to serve the community and make a difference in Erie. The donation was made to mark the opening of the credit union's new Glenwood branch office at 3503 Peach Street.

Erie FCU's #Team AOK were on hand for the check presentation (left to right): Tom Brennan, Erie FCU CMO, Marcus Atkinson, ServErie Executive Director, Jill Mintsiveris, ServErie Director of Fundraising, Kim Latimer Davis, Erie FCU Director of Community Outreach

Team AOK will also be participating in ServErie's school Initiative: "Central Tech Project" taking place July 20th and July 23rd at the former Central Tech High School (Now Erie High School). Team AOK volunteers will assist with clean-up and repairs to help revitalize the school.
