Erie Federal Credit Union Appoints VP of Business Lending

Erie, PA (August 24, 2021) — Erie Federal Credit Union is pleased to announce that Nathan Crouch has been promoted to Vice President of Business Lending. The role was created to continue further enhancing the business lending department which has shown strong growth over the past few years. He will oversee Erie FCU’s business lending team and assist them in providing lending solutions and developing relationships with current and new business members.

Crouch has 28 years of experience in banking, portfolio management, business relationship management, and commercial lending. “Nate’s skill set and experience uniquely qualifies him to lead our organization in serving our business membership base,” stated Fred Tonty, Erie FCU’s CFO. Crouch has been a part of the Erie FCU team since 2013. He formerly served as a Commercial Lender III and prior to Erie FCU, he worked in Business Lending for PNC Bank.

Erie FCU offers a full suite of business services for a broad range of businesses, from business checking to business loans including fixed-term loans, commercial real estate loans, lines of credit, and SBA loans.
