David Garres Joins Erie Advisors at Erie Federal Credit Union

Erie, PA – Erie Federal Credit Union (Erie FCU) is pleased to welcome David Garres as financial advisor for Erie Advisors located at Erie FCU, providing investment and insurance products services to members through CUNA Brokerage Services, Inc. (CBSI). He joins a team of professionals who help members develop strategies to meet their financial goals.

Garres has more than 16 years of experience in the financial industry. He was most recently a Financial Advisor at PSECU Financial Services and is FINRA registered as well as has a life insurance license.

In his position, Garres will provide personalized financial management strategies for clients interested in investing, estate and retirement planning, retirement spending, long-term care solutions and more. Garres will be based out of the Glenwood corporate office.

“We are pleased to welcome David to our team. His knowledge and experience will be an asset in helping our members plan their financial futures by investing wisely and strategically,” said Brian Waugaman, Chief Executive Officer of Erie FCU. I am confident that he will be a valuable addition to the Erie Advisors team that serves the credit union’s members and the local community.”

For more information, you may contact David Garres at (814) 897-2503 today for a no-cost, no-obligation appointment.
