Erie FCU - Erie SeaWolves partner for 4th annual "Good Deeds Day"

Erie, PA – Wednesday, May 31st, 2017 – Erie Federal Credit Union and the Erie SeaWolves will host the 4th annual "Good Deeds Day" at the UPMC ballpark. "Good Deeds Day" is a day designated to allow Erie area charitable organizations the opportunity to create awareness and raise funds during the Erie SeaWolves game on Saturday, July 1st at 7:05 PM. Erie FCU has chosen "Project Support Our Troops" and "Embracing Our Veterans" as our "Good Deeds Day" charities.

Erie FCU will be collecting items and cash donations throughout the month of June in preparation of "Good Deeds Day". Item donations will benefit "Project Support Our Troops" with cash donations designated for "Embracing Our Veterans". Beginning Thursday, June 1st, all Erie FCU branch locations will be accepting donations to benefit these two great causes. Cash and items donated will be presented to the organizations at the July 1st Erie SeaWolves game.

"Project Support Our Troops" provides necessary items to help bring a "slice of home" to our loved ones stationed abroad. A list of needed items will be available at all Erie FCU branch locations. More information: <http://post52.com/project-support-our-troops/>

"Embracing Our Veterans" is a non-profit referral network of local businesses and organizations whose main objective is to help qualifying veterans and their families find discounted or no cost services in Erie and Crawford Counties. More Information: <http://www.embracingourveterans.org/>
